Josie Prendergast

Josie Prendergast doesn't sit still.

A professional surfer since age 14, she has developed into one of Australia's most sought after long-board athletes. Combining the artistry and elegance of the longboard craft with technical skill and athletic performance, Josie effortlessly navigates the world between art, sport and modelling.

Josie is passionate about the environment and keeping the oceans clean and free of waste. It is her office after all. And after the recent devastating typhoons in the Philippines, Josie worked with local and international charities to provide water filters for the communities to help them get through the crisis.

She is Motivated. Genuine. Warm.
